

OHS POLICY

- ♦ To ensure that all employees and suppliers work in a safe business environment;
- ♦ To fulfill all the requirements of the Occupational Health and Safety Management System standard requirements (targets, risks, opportunities, etc.) and to continuously improve the application, systematically reviewing the effectiveness and performance of the system,
- ♦ To protect our employees without being exposed to occupational diseases, accidents and hazards, by eliminating the dangers in a safe and healthy working environment and by taking measures to reduce occupational health and safety risks,
- ♦ To comply with legal regulations in parallel with the activities of our company,
- ♦ To benefit from technological developments,
- ♦ To ensure continuous development; To create the "Safety Awareness" that is the best protector by giving our employees and suppliers the necessary trainings on occupational health and safety and by constantly repeating,
- ♦ Ensuring and supporting the participation of employees and employee representatives in OHS boards,
- ♦ It has adopted the policy of achieving the requirements of the Standard at the highest level.

Emta Kablo Management considers the principle of "People First" and "Safety First" as indispensable and the most basic element in all its activities.

GENERAL MANAGER

01.04.2019

Rev:03